

2026 Recital Parking Information

CSULB has very strict parking rules which are enforced 24/7. Please read through this information carefully to avoid confusion on rehearsal and recital days. (And to avoid getting a ticket!)

Drop off / Pick up Short-Term Parking

Where: Lot E8 in designated drop-off spots
Duration: 20-minute maximum
Charge: Free to drop off (no parking permit needed)

Short-term parking is for you to walk your dancer to/from HAD check-in.

Orders due by May 31st!

If you are not able to find a drop-off/pick-up parking spot you will need to purchase a parking permit from the lot kiosk or the Park Mobile app following these guidelines:

Monday - Friday before 5:30 pm: purchase a pass and park in lot G15
Monday - Friday after 5:30 pm: purchase a pass and park in lot E8 or G15
Saturday - Sunday: purchase a pass and park in lot E8 or G15

Permits for lot E8 can be purchased only on weekends and after 5:30pm on weekdays.

Performance Days Long-Term Parking

Where: Lot E7, E8, E9, S1*
Duration: All-day *(except lot S1 which has a 90 min maximum)
Charge: $10 on weekends and after 5:30 on weekdays; $15 on weekdays before 5:30

Recitals will be 1 1/2 - 2 hours long. It is best to purchase an all-day permit in lots E7, E8, or E9 to be sure you are covered for the entire recital.

No parking attendant is on duty, but the university parking enforcement will be patrolling.

Wheelchair drop off is on East Campus Dr. near the front of the theater.

Purchasing a Parking Permit

Parking permits can be purchased through the Park Mobile app or at a lot kiosk. Scan the QR code to download the Park Mobile app.
